Obituary: In a 1987 Courier-Journal article, Lord said keeping the tulips in bloom for Derby Day is a tricky proposition.

"You know, it's odd," he mused. "I don't know if it's the crowd or what -- but it seems like these tulips almost know that they need to hold on till Derby Day. It makes you wonder, sometimes, if they can hear."

Lord was also responsible for the flower horseshoe that greets each Derby winner in the winner's circle.

He is survived by his wife, the former Norma Tingle; a son, Donald D. Lord; three daughters, Susan R. Lord, Sharon D. Pilkenton and Debra J. Jones; four brothers, Gene, Robert, Authur and David Lord; three sisters, Margie Williams of Hollywood, Fla., Janie Bronham of Pikeville and Linda Lord; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Sunday at Evergreen Funeral Home, 4623 Preston Highway, with private burial at Cave Hill Cemetery.

Visitation will be at the funeral home from 10 a.m.-9 p.m. Saturday.

The family requests memorial contributions be made to the American Lung Association of Kentucky.
