

Truman-Batts

Angela Renee Truman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Truman, Pleasureville, and Robert Brent Batts Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Batts Sr., Turners Station, were united in marriage on Saturday, November 20, 1999 at 6 p.m. at Pleasureville Baptist Church. Rev. Kevin Whitt performed the ceremony.

Organist Jean Shirley provided traditional wedding music. Ruth Ann Mills-Moore sang, "Parent's Prayer" and "I Will be Here."

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a long white satin sleeveless gown. The white pearl bodice was covered with sequins. The chapel train and hemline were also accented with appliques of sequins and tiny white pearl beads. The bride carried a bouquet of white bridal roses, stephanotis with pink centers and baby breath.

Carrie Floyd, Crestwood, served as matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of navy blue, accented with bows in the back. She carried a bouquet of alstroemeria lily, daisies, mini carnations and baby breath.

The bridesmaids were Amy Miles, Andrea Renfrow and Lisa Stephens. They wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor.

The groom wore a black tuxedo and wore a boutonniere of stephanotis with pearl centers. Billy Brown served as best man. He wore a black tuxedo with a boutonniere of white roses. The groomsmen were Sammy Morgan, Donnie Reid and Loren Renfrow. Ushers were Mike Sturgeon and Alan Truman, brother of the bride. Their attire was identical to that of the best man.

The junior bridesmaid was Kayla Cantrall, niece of the groom. She wore a navy blue dress.

The flower girl was Amanda Brown. She wore a gown of white satin and carried a white basket with rose petals.

Judy Wills attended the guest register.

A reception was held following the wedding at the Shelby County Country Club.

After a wedding trip to Disney World, the couple is residing in Walnut Hills Subdivision.

Thuse