

VERNON TINGLE DIES SATURDAY

Succumbs Hour after Being Admitted to Hospital.

Vernon Tingle, 61, of 523 Web-meier street, died at 10 o'clock Saturday night at the county hospital, about an hour after being admitted there.

City firemen were called to the Tingle home to give emergency aid but attempts to revive the stricken man with oxygen failed.

A native of Trimble county, Ky., he was born Feb. 7, 1896, to David and Charlotte Beck Tingle. He belonged to the Baptist church.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at Hathaway funeral home, conducted by the Rev. Claude Fulka and the Rev. Robert Forester. Burial will be made at Garland Brook cemetery. Casket is open at the funeral home.

Survivors are the wife, Mrs. Anna Tingle; five daughters, Mrs. Joseph Sacheban, with whom the Tingles made their home, Mrs. Leroy Huntman of Indianapolis, Mrs. George Huffington of Lexington, Mrs. Dale Hunsucker of Columbus and Mrs. Robert Ponsler of Jacksonville, Fla.; a son, Clarence Tingle of Columbus; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Monroe and Mrs. Jesse Campbell, both of Madison; three brothers, Lester Tingle and Raymond Tingle, both of Madison, and Stanley Tingle of Versailles; and 12 grandchildren. Three brothers preceded him in death, one in January and one in April of this year.

Obituary for VERNON TINGLE

Clipped By:

edhill54

Fri, Apr 3, 2020